

COW DEVOURS ROLL OF GREEN BACKS

The long green looked like good pasture land to Bossy, a Martin's Ferry, O., cow, so she helped herself to a $1,000 cud.

Mrs. James Weatherspoon was the victim of her cow's appetite for high finance. She left the $1,000 on the seat of her buggy while she went into the barn to get the horse.

When Mrs. Weatherspoon came out the wallet was gone, but the cow's jaws were working freely and there was a lump in her throat. Mrs. Weatherspoon promptly forced open the animal's mouth, reached down and drew out a pulpy mass that was once $1,000 in bills.

C. & O. FIREMAN SAYS HE WAS FORCED TO QUIT

Nerves Gave Way And He Couldn't Stand The Noise And Jolting of Engine, States Sharpe—Now Well

"My health got so bad I had to give up railroading, but since taking Tanlac I could fire an engine as good as any man on the C. and O.," said Geo. P. Sharpe, 1628 Tremont street, Cincinnati, Ohio, formerly with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, and now a valued employee of the Lukeheimer Co.

"About five years ago I had an operation which finally resulted in a general breakdown. I couldn't eat without bloating up so bad I could hardly breathe. Then, my nerves gave way, I could hardly stand the jolting and noise of the engine and train, and sleep was next to impossible. I lost weight and had so many dizzy spells I just had to change to lighter work, as none of the many medicines I tried did me any good."

"But Tanlac helped me right from the start, and now I am just as strong and well as I ever was. I wouldn't think of being without Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. (adv)

POSTOFFICE AND BANKS CLOSED TUESDAY

Next Tuesday will be the "Day We Celebrate," the Glorious Fourth of July, ever cherished in the hearts of all patriotic people. The banks and postoffice will be closed, as the day is a legal holiday. At the postoffice the usual closing and opening regulations will obtain, and there will be no deliveries on the rural routes.

The day will be observed with the big picnic in Letton's woods, near Paris, under auspices of the Knights of Columbus, this being at present the only public observance of the day scheduled.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE NEWS

We've told it often and often and the public is pretty well acquainted with it by this time. You know the story of how advertising pays, especially when THE NEWS is the medium. Now here's the story:

Some time ago a valuable silk gold-handled umbrella was left in the Benedetti Confectionery. Mr. Benedetti knew it belonged to one of his patrons, so he did the wise thing, placed a small advertisement in THE NEWS. It brought results.

Mrs. Grant Overby saw the advertisement. Mrs. Overby had lost a valuable umbrella. Result, a restored umbrella and a happy owner.

Moral—Advertising pays, especially in THE NEWS. Try it!
